

MASTS

7th Annual Graduate Retreat

Sustainable Management of Marine Resources: What does it mean and who cares?

Wednesday 15th March –
Friday 17th March 2018

MACDONALD AVIEMORE
HIGHLAND RESORT

Aviemore
Inverness-shire
PH22 1PH

Meet the MASTS community and signup now for the MASTS
Postgraduate event of the year!
The MASTS Retreat is a great opportunity for networking, developing skills and friendships!

Deadline for registration - Mon 5th Feb. Thereafter any remaining places will be offered to other Postgraduates in MASTS Institutions.

To register contact Emma Defew:
ecd2@st-andrews.ac.uk
More details at:
[www.masts.ac.uk/graduate-school/
graduate-retreat/](http://www.masts.ac.uk/graduate-school/graduate-retreat/)

AN EXCITING PROGRAMME INCLUDES PRESENTATIONS AND INTERACTIVE SESSIONS

- IMarEST, Atkins and the world of marine engineering
- Energy Technology Partnership, Selling and Negotiating – what's the difference?
- Strictly Come Salsa in the bar with Stephen-Mark Williams
- Talking Research: Communicating ideas with impact
- Talking Research: A practical session on presenting your research
- Dinner with Conversation: Truth versus Advocacy
- Video Reflections
- Recent graduate perspectives
- Academically speaking...
- Contaminants in the Marine Environment
- Challenges and Management for Scottish Seas and Coasts

OUR SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

Stephen Mark Williams
- before and after!

Lynne O'Neill

Richard Wakefield

Ben Willson

James Thorburn

Stay on after the Retreat for outdoor activities organised by the PGRs Adequate winter clothing is essential!